Americana before 1600.

- 1 Schedel, H., Liber cronicarum cū figuris et ymagibus. Nuremberge, 1493. Ant. Koberger 1493. large folio. Old stamped pigskin with metal corners (rebacked in old time). M. 800.—

First edition, in Latin, of the so-called Nuremberg Chronicle. Remarkably large copy (18<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> × 13 inches), nearly quite intact, in old gothic binding.

Perfect, with all the blank leaves; 20 un., 306 numb., 5 un. ll. With 1809 woodcuts by M. Wohlgemuth, Dürer's master, and H. Pleydenwurff, splendidly coloured.

Hain 14508. Proctor 2084. HARRISSE 13. Cole 7. Nordenskiöld Atlas p. 9.

„On folio ccxc is a passage which has been used as an authority for the claim that Martin Behaim of Nuremberg, in a voyage made by him with James Camus [in 1483] under orders from the King of Portugal, went to the Southern Sea near the coast of Africa, and after crossing the equator, reached the New World and discovered new islands. (Aperuere igitur sua industria alium orbem hactenus nobis incognitum.) . . . An examination of the original manuscript of the work has shown this passage to be an interpolation, written in a different hand . . . On the other hand, it is claimed that little is known of the last years of Behaim's life, from 1494—1506, and that there is no reason why the discoveries depicted on his later globes, as for instance the Straits of Magellan, may not have been acquired by personal knowledge.“ (Cole p. 21—22.)

„The passage relating to Behaim is evidently a counter claim set up in consequence of the discovery achieved by Columbus.“ (HARRISSE, Additions, Chron. table.)

- 2 — Another copy, also perfect with all the blank leaves, not so large but still of a good size, the woodcuts partly coloured, in old stamped pigskin. Some waterstains at the margins of the first leaf. M. 600.—
- 3 — Another copy, quite uncoloured, in old calf of the XVIIIth century. Title mounted, several leaves mended, the map rather stained and the one corner supplied in manuscript. M. 300.—
- 4 Brant, S., Stultifera navis per Jac. Locher in latinum traducta. Basileae, 1498 Johannes [Bergmann] de Olpe 1498 Kal. Martii. 4to. 163 ll. With 118 spirited woodcuts attributed to Dürer. Hfbd. A wormhole in the first leaves. M. 400.—

Hain 3751. Proctor 7778 (in the Bodleian, but not in the British Museum). On the verso of folio 76 is a passage which is of interest for its early allusion to the New World:

Plinius erravit quamvis spectabilis auctor:
Errores varios & Ptolemaeus habet.

Antea quae fuerat prisca incognita tellus:
 Exposita est oculis & manifesta patet.
 Hesperiae occiduae rex Ferdinandus: in alto
 Aequare nunc gentes reperit innumeras.

See the reproduction of three woodcuts p. 5 and 11.

- 5 Brant, S., The same work. S. l. (Lyon), Jac. Zachoni (Sacon) de Romano, 1488 (sic pro 1498). 4<sup>o</sup>. 152 ff. num., 4 ff. non num. (1 vacat). Avec 118 belles figures gr. s. b. Qq. raccommodages aux marges blanches des 4 derniers ff. Bas. M. 450.—

Hain-Copinger 3752; Proctor 8671.

Première édition lyonnaise de la Nef des folz et le premier livre imprimé par J. Sacon. Les 118 figures fort curieuses sont très remarquables au point de vue des moeurs et usages du XV<sup>e</sup> siècle.

Contient au f. 76 le passage sur l'A mérique cité au numéro précédent.

- 6 (Reisch, Greg.), Margarita Philosophica. Chalchographatum primiciali hac pressura Friburgi p Ioannē Schottū Argeñ. citra festū Margarethę anno gratiae M. CCCC. III. small 4to. 302 unnumb. leaves with 17 large and many smaller woodcuts, mathemat. drawings and music, and a large folding map of the world. Rubricated. The map mounted and rather injured by folding in the centre. Old stamped pigskin. M. 450.—

First edition of this encyclopaedia, which provided for the general want of knowledge of the educated classes of the 16th century and has been reprinted several times. In its 7th book the work contains chapters on cosmography and geography. We ascertain nothing in it on the geographical discoveries of the 15th century, as the manuscript was already finished in 1496, but on the map which the publisher, Johannes Schottus, added to the work, there is to be found a hint of them in the legend on Ptolemy's fabulous territory to the south of the Indian Ocean: Hic non terra sed mare est: in quo mirae magnitudinis insulae, sed Ptolemaeo fuerunt incognitae.

Copies with the map are very scarce. HARRISSE p. 144 knew no copy containing it. Nordenskiöld gives a beautiful reproduction of it on plate 31. of his Facsimile-Atlas. See our reproduction of one woodcut page 15.

- 7 (Reisch, Greg.), Margarita Philosophica. Rursus exaratum p uigili / noua / itęq; secūdaria hac opera Joannis Schotti Argentineñ. Chalchographi Ciuis : ad 17. kl. Apriles Anno gratie. 1504. small 4to. With 43 woodcuts and a large folding map of the world. Old calf. M. 350.—

The second edition, printed at Strassburg, with addition of 16 new woodcuts. The map of the world, which, in the first edition, is only executed in outlines, is here carefully finished with hatchings.

- 8 Bergomensis, J. Ph., Nouissima historiarū omnium repercuſsões . . . que Supplementum supplementi Cronicarum nuncupantur. Venetiis, G. de Rusconibus 1506. Folio. 12 un. ll., 447 ll. (numbered 449), 1 blank l. Vellum. M. 120.—

Panzer VIII 382. HARRISSE 42. Essling no. 347. Contains 3 large woodcuts, many views of cities, borders and initial letters several of which coloured.

Folio 440 verso the chapter: De quatuor permaximis insulis in india extra orbem nuper inventis.

(Saint Dié 1507.) sm. 4to. 52 un. ll. with woodcuts and a folding plate or diagram with 12 lines of text on reverse. Rubricated. Modern stamped pigskin, blind tooling. Fine copy. M. 2500.—

This book consists of two distinct parts: a geographical introduction, and an account of the four voyages of Amerigo Vespucci. The four letters of Vespucci, which occupy the greater portion of this work, originally written in Italian, first appeared in print at Florence about 1505 or 1506, and next in this Latin quarto of Waldseemüller's, printed in an obscure nook of the Vosges. In this work Waldseemüller is the first to suggest that the newly discovered continent should be called America, leaf C recto: quarta orbis pars (quam quia Americus inuenit Amerigen, quasi Americi terram sive Americam (sic) nuncupare licet). And C<sup>3</sup> verso: Quarta pars per Americum Vesputium (ut in sequentibus audietur) inventa est: quam non video cur quis iure velit ab Americo inventore sagacis ingenii viro Amerigen quasi Americi terram, sive Americam dicendam . . . Eius situm & gentis mores ex bis binis Americi navigationibus quae sequuntur liquide intelligi datur.

The publication met with instant success and the proposal was at once generally adopted and prevailed despite later opposition. But for this little work the Western Hemisphere might have been called Atlantis, or Hesperides, or Columbia, or New India.

Harrisse 46. Cole 24. See the reproduction on p. 21.

- 10 Stamler, Joh., Dyalogus de diversarum genecium sectis et mundi religionibus. Impressum Augusti per Erhardum oglin. & Georgium Nadler 1508. 36 leaves folio. Title in woodcut. Vellum. M. 200.—

An extremely rare and curious drama, of the highest interest to American collectors, as both Columbus and Vespuccius are referred to (on the verso of leaf aiii) as discoverers of the New World.

The splendid title page engraved in wood by Hans Burgkmaier bears his monogram H·B; it is printed twice on both pages of the first leaf. A little piece of it in facsimile and a little hole in leaf 34 mended with loss of half a word. Slightly wormed.

Harrisse 51. Cole 26.

- 11 (Montalboddo, Fracan), Itinerariū Portugallēsū e Lusitania in Indiā et in / de in occidentem et demum ad aquilonem. (Then a large map of Southern Europe, Asia and Africa filling the rest of the page.) — Folio B recto: ITINERARIUM Portugallensium ex Vlisbona in Indiam nec non in Occidentem ac Septentrionem: ex Vernaculo sermone in latinum traductum. Interprete Archangelo Madrigano Mediolanense Monacho Careuallensi. — In fine: Operi suprema manus imposita est kalendis quintilibus, Ludouico galliæ rege huius urbis inclite scepra regente . . . M. D. VIII. [Mediolani, Alexander Minutianus, type 2.] 1508. small folio; 10 unnumbered leaves and 88 numbered folios, total 98 folios. Vellum. M. 1800.—

Fine and perfect copy. Harrisse 58. Cole 27. This is the first Latin translation of the early collection of voyages: the Paesi nouamente retrouati, of 1507, and, after Columbus's Letters, one of the most important contributions to the early history of America.

The first three voyages of Columbus are to be found in chapters 84—108; recto of folio LII. to the verso of LXVI.

Cap. CXIII. on folio LXX. is entitled: De nouo orbe: e lingua hispana in italicam traducta. The reference to this chapter in the index is as follows: De epistola Alberici Vesputii loco prohemii. cap. cxiii.

See the reproduction of the title on p. 27.

- 12 (Waldseemüller, Martin, in Latin Martinus Hylacomilus), Cosmographie introductio: cum quibusdam Geometriae ac Astronomiae principijs ad eam rem necessarijs. Insuper quattuor Americi Vesputij navigationes. Universalis Cosmographiae descriptio tam in solido quam plano, eis etiam insertis quae Ptholomaeo ignota, a nuperis reperta sunt. Pressit apud Argentoratos Joannes grüniger 1509. Joanne Adelpho Mulicho Castigatore. sm. 4to. 32 unnumbered leaves with woodcuts and a folding plate with 14 lines on reverse. Vellum. M. 700.— 1509

In this edition Waldseemüller's suggestion that the newly discovered continent should be called America, is to be found on leaf C<sup>3</sup> recto and C<sup>3</sup> verso. It was this edition which was reprinted by Navarrete with notes and a Spanish translation, in his Collección, 3: 191—220.

Harrisse 60. Cole 32. Proctor 9915.

- 13 Fulgosus, B., De dictis factisque memorabilibus collectanea: a Camillo Gilino latina facta. Iacobus Ferrarius Mediolani a. kl' Iulias M. D. viiii. impressit. Folio. Title and 335 unnumbered leaves, beautiful initial letters. Gothic binding, oaken boards with stamped calf. Large copy, but with some wormholes. M. 80.—

Harrisse Additions 34. On verso of ll<sup>2</sup> a chapter De Christophoro Colombo. Mirus etiam nauticae artis ac Cosmographiae effectus fuit: quem Christophorus Columbus natione genuensis Anno 1493 ostendit etc.

First edition, greatly prized on account of the beauty of the paper and impression. The Italian original never was printed.

- 14 EUSEBII Cesariensis Episcopi Chronicon, quod Hieronymus presbyter diuino eius ingenio Latinū facere curauit, & vsq̄ in Valentem Caesarē Romano adiecit eloquio. Ad quem & Prosper & Mattheus Palmerius, & Matthias Palmerius, demum & Joannes Multiuallis complura que ad hec vsq̄ tempora subsecuta sūt adiecere. Paris 1512. 4to. 20 unnumbered, 173 numbered leaves, 1 unnumbered leaf. On the title a large border & many initials. Printed in red and black. Calf unnumbered. The last pages slightly water-stained and with some marginal notes by an old hand. M. 100.—

Most interesting edition of the Eusebius continued to the year 1511.

Harrisse says p. 131: we could find only one copy of a Paris edition of Eusebius Chronicon, printed by Stephanus, in 1512. It is in the British Museum. . . . As the title is wanting we are unable to state whether it is the same edition mentioned by Renouard. . . . In the Additions he describes the copy of the Arsenal Library in Paris. Folio 171 of this book occurs a notice of Cadamosto's voyages; and on the verso leaf 174 a curious account (reprinted by Harrisse Suppl. p. 58) of seven Indians from the New-World, who were brought to Rouen in 1509. This passage refers probably to the Indians brought from Canada by Thomas Aubert.

Woodcut of no. 4.

- 15 Bergomas, Jac. Phil., Supplementum Supplementi Chronicarum editum 1513 et novissime recognitum et castigatum. Venetiis, G. de Rusconibus 1513. folio. 10 unnn. leaves, 335 numb. ll. and one blank. Many beautiful woodcuts by the masters FV and LA. Vellum. First leaves wormed, title stained and with inscriptions by owners of the 17th and 18th century. M. 75.—

The chapter „De quatuor permaximis insulis in india extra orbem nuper inventis“ commences on the verso of folio 328. Harrisse 73. Essling p. 309, 349.

- 16 (Giustiniani, Agost.), Psalterium, Hebraeum, Graecū, Arabicū, & Chaldaeū, cū tribus latinis iterpretatōibus & glossis. Impressit Petrus Paulus Porrus, genuae in aedibus Nicolai Iustiniani Pauli anno 1516 mense. VIIIbri. folio. Title in red and black within a beautiful border, fine initial letters, printer's mark at the end. Old calf. M. 100.—
Harrisse 88. Agostino Giustiniani, Bishop of Nebbio, was born in Genoa in 1470. He is the editor of this Psalter in the Hebrew, Chaldean, Greek, Arabic and Latin languages, the first polyglot printed with the types belonging to each version.
On leaf C', C' and D' we find as a glossa to the words of Psalm XIX, et in fines mundi verba eorum a lengthy biography of Christopher Columbus, the countryman and contemporary of Giustiniani. C'est, croyons nous, la plus ancienne biographie imprimée du célèbre navigateur. (Leclerc no. 467.)
Fernando Columbus devotes an entire chapter to a refutation of what he mildly terms the twelve lies uttered by Giustiniani.
The second part of this copy is waterstained. It belonged to the library of the Jesuits of Paris, as it appears from the inscriptions on the title page: Domus professae societatis jesu parisiensis; then it came into the library of King George III. whose monogram is here printed on the back (a crowned G with the motto: Hony soyl qui mal y pense).]
- 17 Mela, Pomponius, Libri de situ orbis tres, adiectis I O a c h i m i V a d i a n i Heluetii in eosdem Scholiis: Addita quoq; in Geographiā Catechesi: & Epistola Vadiani ad Agricola. Fol. 23 unnumb., 132 numb. ll. & 1 unnumb. l. On the title a fine woodcut border with the Muses playing musical instruments. The large printer's mark of Lucas Alantsee at the end. Very fine copy. Oaken boards. M. 160.—
Harrisse 92.
The first edition of Pomponius Mela with the commentary of Vadianus. On verso of folio 124, and recto of 128, in the epistle of Vadianus to Agricola, the passages relating to America, „a Vesputio reperta."
See the reproduction of the title page 31.
- 18 (Montalboddo, Fr.), Paesi nouamente retrouati. & Nouo Mōdo da Alberico Vesputio Flo- / rētino intitulato. This rarissime work consists of 6 books. The fourth book is intitled: Incomenza la nauigatione del Re de Castiglia de le isole & paese nouamente retrouate: Libro quarto. It contains the first three voyages of Columbus, of Alonso Negro and of the brothers Pinzon. The fifth book: El Nouo Mondo de Lingua Spagnola interpretato in Idioma Ro. Libro quinto, contains Vespuccius' third voyage. The upper edge of l. c wanting with loss of a few words.
Harrisse 94. Cole 43. See the reproduction of the title p. 35.

M. 800.—

Harrisse 108.

Perfect copy with the large map usually lacking, which was made by Petrus Apianus and was for a long time considered to be the earliest engraved map upon which the name America appears. It is a woodcut 11 ½ × 16 inches with an ornamented border and bears the inscription: TIPVS ORBIS VNIVERSALIS IVXTA PTOLOMEI CoSMoGRAPHI TRADITIONEM ET AMERICI Vespucii ALIORVQVE LVSTRATIONES A PETRO APIANO LEYSNICO ELVCVBRATVS AN. DO M. DXX. The southern continent is separated from the northern, on the southern part we read: Anno 1497 hac terra cum adiacentibus insulis inuenta est per Columbū Ianuensem ex mandato regis castelle AMERICA provincia. North several islands, one marked ISABELLA, under which the inscription: Spagnolla insula in qua reperitur gaudicum lignum. On the northern continent the inscriptions: Parias and Ulterius terra incognita.

See our reproduction plate I.

21 TITULO REAL de Don Francisco Izquin, ultimo Ahpop Galel, ó Rey de Nahaib, en el Quiché, otorgado por los señores que le dieron la investidura de su real dignidad, firmada por el ultimo Rey del Quiché, con otros varios principes, en dia 22 de noviembre del año de 1558. Texto original en LENGUA QUICHE. Original manuscript, 11 leaves. 1524

TITULOS de los antiguos Nuestros antepasados, los que ganaron estas tierras de Oztzoja, antes de que viniera la fé de Jesu Christo entre de ellas, en el año de mil y trescientos. Original manuscript of 9 leaves, the first of which wanting, dated May 7th 1524.

Several official documents from 1581 to 1782, 12 leaves. Together 30 leaves folio in their old vellum wrappers with the inscription: Varios papeles de la provincia de Quetzaltenango. Lateral margins mostly mended with loss of text. M. 5000.—

Original documents of the highest value, from the library of BRASSEUR de BOURBOURG with his book plate. He has given a detailed description of this manuscript in his Bibliothèque Mexico-Guatémaliennne, Paris 1871 page 142—143; we reproduce in the following the most important passages:

„Le premier manuscrit de 11 ff., en langue Quiché, contient outre les prologomènes symboliques d'usage, l'histolre de la conquête des villes de la Verapaz inférieure et du Quiché par les tribus de ce nom et en particulier par les trois maisons royales, dont celle de Nahaib était la dernière en rang. Il porte les signatures originales des derniers princes du Quiché, qui, ainsi que ceux du Mexique, s'empresèrent d'adopter les caractères de l'alphabet latin, tout au commencement de la conquête, afin d'y pouvoir consigner leurs histoires, sans péril et sans crainte d'être soupçonnés d'idolâtrie ou de rébellion.

Le second manuscrit de 8 ff. est un document d'un très haut intérêt pour l'histoire des tribus de la langue quiché, du XIII. au XIV. siècle, et pour celle de la conquête du Guatemala: il comprend la relation des victoires et conquêtes des rois Quichés, de Quetzaltenango; celle des villes de la côte du Pacifique; enfin celle de la conquête de cette portion du pays par Alvarado. Il affirme la légitimité des droits des princes de Quetzaltenango et de Momostenango, ainsi que les services qu'ils rendirent aux Espagnols.

La pièce est datée de l'époque la plus ancienne, 7 mai 1524, et porte la signature d'Alvarado de cette manière: „Ande mi don Pedro Albarado Juez capitán español conquisador“: elle est précédée de celles des dix princes de Quetzaltenango, dont le nombre faisait allusion au nom quiché de cette ville: Xe-Lahuh Quieh, sous les Dix-Cerfs; tous, néanmoins, portent déjà des noms espagnols bien que cinq d'entre eux y aient accolé leur nom indigène. (Voyez notre reproduction à la planche II.)

Suivent, après la signature du conquérant, celles des quatre religieux Français qui accompagnaient l'armée d'invasion.

Ce document est suivi de diverses pièces officielles qui en attestent l'authenticité: elles sont des années 1581, 1589, 1674, 1751, 1757 et 1782.

Je tiens ce document, ainsi que les autres qui y ont rapport, de Don Juan Gavarrete, directeur du dépôt des archives nationales, d'où ils furent retirés, en 1856, à cause de leur état de vétusté. Ils furent copiés authentiquement aux frais des chefs indigènes de Quetzaltenango et de Momostenango, dont ils attestent les possessions territoriales, et les copies remplacèrent les originaux aux archives.

Fine copy of this splendid edition of Ptolemy, „omnium, quas vidi, editionum Ptolemaei splendidissima“, says Raidel, profusely illustrated with woodcuts, one by Albrecht Dürer (on leaf 69 verso, Passavant 202), some ones by Hans Holbein, and containing 50 large geographical maps, three of which are of special interest:

1. Oceani occidentalis Seu Terre Noue Tabvla, a map of America, on the reverse of which a history of Columbus' discoveries, with a woodcut. See the reproduction on page 39.

The earliest natural history of America, one of the rarest and most important books on the New World. It was the first general review of the new American empire of Spain, discussing the almost unlimited prospect of grandeur opened by the recent discoveries of Mexico, the Pacific, and the passage through Magellan's Straits; and the policy which should be adopted by the monarchy. The book was probably suppressed in Spain itself for prudential reasons; which would account for its signal rarity.

„Ce premier ouvrage du fécond écrivain n'a rien de commun avec la Historia general y natural de las Indias de 1535; c'est un résumé destiné à donner au roi d'Espagne un aperçu des choses du Nouveau-Monde, décrivant les rites, moeurs, costumes et cérémonies des naturels.“ (Brunet, Suppl. II 122.)

Quite perfect, 82 leaves. On title a fine portrait of Charles V. and a woodcut border containing the escutcheons of the imperial dominions, also those of America (Insulen).

The portrait is repeated on l. 13 and 43. At the end the beautiful printer's mark with the fat Hen. All these fine woodcuts are by Anton Woensam (Merlo 458 and 490).

Interesting copy with notes in Spanish language on the margins. A little wormed.

XXXII. folio. 24 unnumb. leaves, 584 pages and 1 leaf for the colophon and printer's mark. Large folding map. Fine old stamped pigskin. M. 250.—

First edition of this valuable collection of voyages, usually cited under the name of Grynaeus on account of his preface.

The chapters which are of importance to the student of American history are:

The first three voyages of Columbus. Pinzon's voyage. The duplicate of Vespuccius' third voyage. The four voyages of Vespuccius. The extract of the fourth Decade of Peter Martyr.

Harrisse 171 mentions copies with two varieties of the map which he calls A and B. This is one of the very scarce copies with the map of type A. The map bears on one line the inscription: TYPVS COSMOGRAPHICVS VNIVERSALIS, and two inscriptions within a square, one beginning with the word INDIA, and the other SCVTARVM. The New World is represented on the north as a long strip of land, bearing the inscription Terra de Cuba; the isthmus is cut asunder. The southern part contains these words only: Parias, Canibali, AMERICA TERRA NOVA, Prisilia. On the old continent the name ASIA printed in very large type. This map, in a highly ornamented border, and the 2 woodcuts in the text are by HANS HOLBEIN. See Kögler in Jahrb. d. Pr. Kunsts. Beiheft Bd. 23 S. 112.

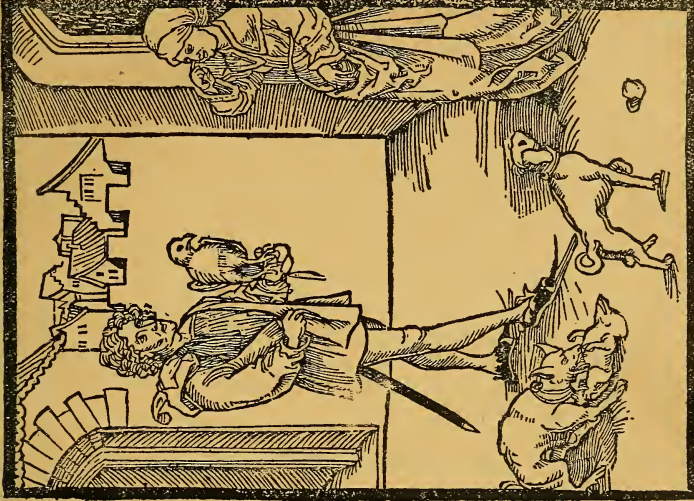

In the same volume: Beatus Rhenanus in C. Plinium. Basil., Froben 1526. 110 pages and 1 leaf for the printer's mark.

- 28a — The same edition. Another copy in a very beautiful old leather-binding, blind toolings. M. 200.—

This copy contains the map of type B; it differs from A only by the name Asia being printed in letter press with somewhat smaller types. See the reproduction in Nordenskiöld's Atlas plate 42.

Harrisse 172 (confer 173). The rarest edition.

Genuine copy in a splendid old binding with the curious map by Orontius Fine.

Collation: Title with table of contents on the verso, 25 un. ll., 514 pages and 1 l. with register and colophon. The map is a double-folded homeoterial mappemund. On the right is a separate continent, bearing the inscriptions: BRASILEIE REGIO, REGIO PATALIS, TERRA AVSTRALIS REcenter inuenta, sed nondum plene cognita; and below an elongated peninsula with the word AMERICA. On the left several narrow strips with the names: Terra florida, Cuba, Yucatans, Ianaica (sic). In a square frame the inscription: Orontius. F. Delph. ad lectorem . . . Vale, 1531. Mense Julio. The lateral ornamental borders slightly cut into. In a geographical point of view this map far surpasses the Holbein map of the Basel edition, as well in its greater richness of names and topographical details, as in due attention being here paid to the latest geographical discoveries. Greenland is drawn as a large island; North America forms, in accordance with the conception of Columbus, a mere continuation of Asia. No name is placed at the straits of Magellan, but the sea to the west of it is called Mare Magellanicum, which as far as I know is the first time that the name of this discoverer occurs on a printed map of unquestioned date' (Nordenskiöld p. 106).

Oviedo went out to America in 1513 and resided there for more than 20 years. Authority was given him by the Emperor to demand from the different governors of Spanish America such documents as he might need. His work is the source from which most literary writers have drawn their accounts of the early occurrences in the New World.

Very rare first edition with the second part which is usually wanting, as it was published 22 years later; Oviedo died in 1557, while this second part was in the press and only the Libro xx has been published. The manuscript of the rest of the work was scattered, but finally brought together and printed for the first time in 1851 by the Spanish Government.

Collation: Part I: 4 un. ll., 193 numb. ll., 1 bl. l. Title printed in red in woodcut ornament with the monogr. IC (Juam Cromberger); large initial letters and 28 woodcuts in the text illustrating the manners and implements of the natives and representing animals and plants. Arms of Oviedo

On p. 47 of part I the first mention of tobacco, with a small woodcut, which is the oldest representation of a tobacco pipe.

Lugduni ex officina Trechsel fratrum 1535. large folio. 150 pages, 1 leaf for colophon, 50 large maps (49 filling 2 leaves each) with text on the reverse with woodcuts and borders, and 38 leaves index. Vellum. Remarkably large copy. The name of Pirkheimer on the title rather injured. Manuscript notes on the map of Italy. M. 300.—

First edition edited by the celebrated martyr for freedom of thought Michael Servetus or Villanovanus. On the verso of the Map of Palestine the passage which created a great scandal and became one of the main charges against Servet, who was burned alive through the machinations of Calvin.

The text to the Oceani occidentalis seu terrae novae tabula deviates considerably from the corresponding passage in Pirkheimer's edition of 1525 (s. no. 22). It ends with the following protest against the newly adopted name for the New World, derived from that of Amerigo: Toto itaque, quod aiunt, aberrant coelo qui hanc continentem Americam nuncupari contendunt, cum Americus multo post Columbum eandem terram adierit, nec cum Hispanis ille, sed cum Portugallensibus, ut suas merces commutaret, eo se contulit. Yet the map of Laurentius Frisius is to be found in this edition, without the name of America having been erased.

Many copies of this book are said to have been burned by the order of Calvin at the time of the execution of Servet in 1553.

From the library of Brasseur de Bourbourg with his bookplate. See his Bibliothèque mexico-guatémaliennne p. 37, where he gives the following description: „Ce document provient des anciennes archives de l'évêché de Coban, dans la Verapaz. Lorsque j'arrivai à Rabinal, il était dans la possession d'Ignacio Coloché, alors secrétaire de la municipalité indigène et qui m'en fit présent avec plusieurs autres documents du même genre. Il m'assura qu'il remontait traditionnellement au Ven. Luis Cancer, l'un des premiers apôtres de la Verapaz. Fray Luis Cancer, né à Balbastro, en Arragon, fut le compagnon de Las Casas et d'Angulo, et l'on sait avec quelle sainte ardeur il défendit la liberté des indigènes, dans la réunion des évêques et des théologiens qui se tint à Mexico, en 1546. D'accord avec Las Casas, ce fut lui qui composa les premiers chants chrétiens, destinés à gagner les indigènes de la Verapaz, où les introduisirent quelques marchands convertis à la nouvelle foi. Ces chants furent écrits d'abord dans l'idiome quiché de Zacapulas, puis en Cacchi de Coban, etc. Etant retourné en Espagne, dans l'intérêt des Indiens, il fut envoyé de là dans la Floride, où il fut mis à mort par les barbares, en 1549. Ce Manuscrit est le seul monument de ce genre existant aujourd'hui.“

Harris 277.

Xeres, the secretary of Pizarro, wrote this narrative by order of his master, while he was in America; it is interspersed with many anecdotes and personal reminiscences. At the end are 9 ten-line stanzas, relating to the author, probably written by G. F. de Oviedo y Valdes. This edition has been appended to Oviedo's Coronica delas Indias, Harris 278.

Contains Schoner's OPVSCVLVM GEOGRAPHICVM of 1533 (Harrisse 178) with a fine woodcut of a globe. In this work (folio CXXXVI verso) Schoner says that Vespuccius caused a part of Upper India, which he supposed to be an island, to be called by his name. Schoner considers the land discovered by Vespuccius as a part of the continent of Upper India, and as a proof of this theory cites the voyage of Magellan: a Columbo et Vesputio [regiones] lustratae sunt, eam partem terrae insulam existimantes uocauerunt Americam, quartam orbis partem. Modo vero per navigationes factas anno 1519 per Magellanum eam terram inuenerunt esse continentem superioris Indiae, quae pars est Asiae. (folio CXLIII.) See Cole I page 153.

Gomara was one of the earliest and at the same time one of the ablest of the Spanish historians of the New World. In 1540 he was chaplain and secretary of Cortés, his connection with whom gives value to his work, especially as he had access to many documents which have since disappeared.

First illustrated edition of this book. To give an idea of his contents we give some of the headings of the chapters: Chapt. 45: Del descubrimiento dela Florida, ch. 48: Del descubrimiento dela isla Jamayca, o Santiago, ch. 51: Dela isla de Cuba o Fernandina, y de sus costumbres, ch. 52: Del descubrimiento de Jucatan, y de sus conquistas y costumbres, ch. 73: del descubrimiento y costumbres de Veneçuela, ch. 89: del rio dela Plata, ch. 108: del rico e famoso descubrimiento del Peru, ch. 125: de las calidades y costumbres del Cuzco, ch. 126: dela conquista del Quito, ch. 197: del descubrimiento, sitio y costumbres de Panama, ch. 200: del descubrimiento de Nicaragua etc. etc.

- 67 Bellerus, Joan, BREVIS EXACTAQ3 TOTIVS NOVI ORBIS EIVSQ3 1555
INSVLARVM DESCRIPTIO RECENS A IOAN BELLRO (sic)
EDITA. Map of America in woodcut  $10^{11}/_{16} \times 7^{3}/_{16}$  inches.
[London 1555.] M. 800.—

One of the scarcest maps of America published in the sixteenth century. It is an enlarged copy of Beller's map ( $6^{11}/_{16} \times 5^{1}/_{16}$  inches) which had appeared in Antwerp in 1554 and which is mentioned in P. L. Phillips' List of maps of America, in the Library of Congress page 103; a facsimile of this smaller map may be found in Nordenskiöld's Periplus page 160.

Our enlarged map seems to be identical with the map described by G. W. Cole in the Church Catalogue Vol. I page 240 as being laid in in a copy of Eden's Decades, London 1555. Mr. Cole writes: „Rich records a copy [of Eden's decades] with Beller's map, supposed by some to belong to the copy. The Lenox Library has a copy with the Beller map laid in. It is an enlarged copy of the map which appeared in Cieça de Leon, Gomara and Darinel, all printed at Antwerp in 1554 and 1555, and is printed from a block measuring  $10^{11}/_{16} \times 7^{3}/_{16}$  inches. This map has not been identified as belonging to any other work.“ We cannot find any other notice on this large map of Bellerus. As far as we can ascertain, it has not yet been described and is unknown to all cartographers.

Four maps are added, among which Brasil nova tavola. Contains also the maps of: TIERRA NOVA (South America), TIERRA NVEVA, ISOLA CVBA, YSLA
ESPANIOLA, etc. Two important innovations were introduced by this edition into the literature of atlases, viz: 1st The division of the map of the world into two hemispheres, of which the right one represents the Old World and the left the
New. This map of Ruscelli is extremely well designed, and engraved on copper with Italian taste and Italian skill. 2d. The drawing of the map of the Arctic regions, which during nearly a whole century exercised an influence on the mapping of the northern countries.

- Casas, the first historians of America. 3 vols. in 6. New York 1903—04. roy. 8<sup>o</sup>. h. green levant. M. 360.—
 „Collector's edition“, of which only 100 copies have been printed. This splendid publication cont. some 300 plates which comprise portraits, reprod. in facsimile of mss., views and maps, is of the greatest importance. The figure of Columbus is clearly drawn; the scenes of his life are carefully filled in, the nature of his achievements and the eternal results thereof are told with new interest.
 The Collector's edition is especially valuable, exact facsimiles of the precious books giving the earliest account of the first, second, third and fourth voyages having been added.

An interesting entry under date March 11th, 1808: "We made the United States of America, and at 8 a. m. came opposite the entrance of Chesapeake Bay; the Admiral sent into the Chesapeake the Eurydice frigate, to see if the French Fleet were there, and we arranged our cables, expecting to go into the Bay, but did not, and kept tacking off and on every four hours. The Bay of Chesapeake is 170 miles long, and in some places 30 miles broad, and affords good anchorage, &c." March 15th: "Received no intelligence of the French being in Chesapeake Bay, the Eurydice's frigate boat came on board, and the American Government did not agree to let the squadron come to an anchor in Chesapeake Bay, so bore away from the Coast of America through the Atlantic, for the Western Islands and England. Ships in company."

Edition originale, excessivement rare. C'est le monument le plus important pour l'histoire du Chili. En voici la collation: 1 f. de titre, 3 ff. n. e., 455 pp. et 1 p. n. e., 6 ff. avec 12 grav. s. b., représ. les collèges de la Comp. de Jésus au Chili, 3 ff. avec les plans des ports princip. de ce pays, 1 grande carte gravée du Chili, 14 pl. grav. s. e., distribuées dans le texte. Entre les pp. 322—323 se trouvent 21 eaux-fortes, dont une partie est gravée par Ant. T e m p e s t a et qui ne se trouvent pas dans l'édition italienne. Les premières 9 pll. représentent les gouverneurs, les 12 autres les „Duces“ du Chili. Racommodage au titre avec perte des deux premières lignes qui sont refaites à la main. Il manque à notre ex. le faux titre et les deux titres pour les planches, sauf cela, bonne conservation. V. la reproduction à la page 238.

- Contains the first engravings printed in this country. Extremely scarce publication, not mentioned by the bibliographers. On page 120 the author tells the difficulties he had in printing the plates. This epilogue is interesting enough, for the history of engraving in America to be referred textually: „The plates above referred to, will, it is hoped, convey a tolerable idea of the subjects they are intended to illustrate; but the Author may be pardoned for observing, that in consequence of the great many difficulties to which an artist is subject in this Country in preparing his designs for the press, it requires an unusual share of perseverance and trouble to bring out any thing in a style corresponding to his wishes. In England the different branches of art are executed by distinct and separate individuals; but here the author has necessarily been his own draughtsman — his own engraver — his own printer — and, in a great measure, his own coppersmith. Being the first and only person, who introduced engraving and copper-plate printing in Demerara, he is not without sanguine hopes, that all imperfections, under these circumstances, will be kindly overlooked.“

Sir,

I have been duly honoured with your favour of the 13th of April from Salisbury, accompanying what I persuade myself will (when opened) be found to be, a very fine Chess as all which I have had from you have proved

For this additional evidence of your kind, and polite attention to me, I pray you to accept my gratitude and thanks. -

Unsuccessful in my first attempt to get a few (Virginia) Hams to you, I am making another trial - through the medium of Mess<sup>rs</sup> Thompson & Veitch - and hope they will meet a better fate than the last -

For your obliging wishes respecting me I feel very sensibly. - I reciprocate them cordially - and am

Sir

Your obliged and

G. Washington

M<sup>rs</sup> W. Hambley.
